Jake looked bland and smiling, and greeted us in his usual affable manner, but seemed reficent concerning his trip, remarking that he was "tired of notoriety and anxious to retire to the shades of private life." But the reportorial diagger was drawn and the subject promptly punctured until he thawed perceptibly, and talked freely. To an inquiry as to where he had been, and what success he had met with, he replied:

"It would take a small book to contain my experience in the lecture business since I left home in September. It was full of viscissitudes, both pleasant and unpleasant. I traveled over about 1,200 miles of territory, lecturing at Wellsburg, Fairview, New Cumberland, Bellaire, Moundaville, Parkersburg racket. How an Islander Goes Home After Dank.—One evening recently, say about 10 o'clock, an Island gentleman, duly sober, started to go home from the house of a neighbor. He got along very well until he got to the street, and then his troubles began. It was darker than the mind of a heathen who thinks a missionary is only made to be eaten, and it was as muddy and nasty under foot as if all the dust in the Panhandle had been strongly diluted with water and plastered over the ground. But the Islander knew he had to be home or there would be a wifely remonstrance like the breaking up of the vasty deep, so he pushed ahead. If not, it may be predicted that the prospects of the Democratic party will become more and more gloomy, perhaps be ruinously obscured, when the next contest for the presidency draws near. Both abroad and at home the prospect is most encouraging if the national finances could once more be established on a secure foundation. The dealings with the debt are satisfactory, and could the currency be brought back to a hard-money basis and cleared of the complications of silver down on — street, and if I didn't know you were a sober man, I'd swear you CORETS 25, 50, 75 cents and $1 00 per pair, at G. CRITICISM OF MR. GLADSTONE.

The Time's leading editorial severely censures Mr. Gladstone's speech for the tendency of its influence on the fortunes of the country, no less than on those of the liberal party. "Approaching shadows of a general election are already discernible. Its result will probably dedepend upon the relative claims of the two parties to public confidence in respect to the administration of foreign and Indian affairs. As far as the liberal party is re-One hundred dozen Straw Hats, only 25 affairs. As far as the liberal party is re-presented by Mr. Gladstone and his fol-lowers, its criticism has degenerated into vituperation. Not a little of the ministry's LIVER IS KING.—The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of aliments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequaled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want. vituperation. Not a little of the ministry strength is attributable to the revulsion produced by the persistent reiteration of these wholesale accusations. We trust Lord Granville and Lord Hartington will desistively separate themselves from the Lord Granville and Lord Hartington will decisively separate themselves from the sort of criticism by which the liberal interests, and consequently those of the country, have of late been so grievously damaged.
